

Ian Fisher

A Brief Resumé

Ian Fisher is a Director of Corteks with more than 25 years' international Management Consulting experience helping clients design and deliver sustainable performance improvement and transformation programs across large Private Sector and Public organisations.

Most recently, Ian was a Partner at EY for 10 years after joining as one of the "Foundation Partners" in 2006 to create and build the Management Consulting division. For the first 3 years, he was the Supply Chain & Operations and Customer Competencies' leader where his role was to build the Advisory Practice in Australia and NZ.

Ian was the leader of Ernst & Young's Advisory Government & Public Sector (GPS) Practice in Oceania (Australia and New Zealand) for 6 years. Ian was also a member of the Oceania Advisory Leadership team, where in addition to his GPS Advisory Leadership role, he was the Oceania Advisory Markets leader which drove sales pipeline development/management across all industry sectors.

He was formerly a Partner at Accenture for 10 years and a Vice President at Cap Gemini for 2 years. Prior to joining the Management Consulting sector, Ian spent over 15 years working in corporate environments in senior management positions with companies such as Nestle, Bristol Myers, The Bacardi Company and Campbell Arnott's.

Ian holds a Bachelor of Commerce from University of New South Wales. He is a member of the Australian Institute of Corporate Directors and is an Associate Member of Australian Institute of Chartered Accountants.

Ian was the lead Partner for Diversity and Inclusiveness (D&I) within the Advisory workforce for 4 years where he oversaw the development and implementation of initiatives designed to build a more inclusive workforce across gender, Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander, ethnicity, LGBTI, and disability groups.